

Spiritual & Philosophical Organizations (Non-Religious)

Spiritual philosophy is any philosophy or teaching that pertains to spirituality. It may incorporate religious or esoteric themes, especially those from Theosophy or Neo-Theosophy, Anthroposophy, New Age thought, mysticism, and Eastern philosophy. Concepts may include the nature of The Absolute, karma and reincarnation, the evolution of the soul, higher states of consciousness, universal mind, and so on.

More and more in these modern times, people are looking towards spiritual philosophy rather than religion, for many reasons. They may feel that most religions are out of date, too controlling and not amenable to their own lifestyles or changing with the times.

Spiritual philosophy requires its adherents to use their personal intellect and self judgements more than most religions do. They generally teach that all souls are alive for a learning experience and not answerable to anyone or anything but themselves while they are on their quest towards the reward of ultimately joining with a Creator. There are various descriptions of all this but it is almost always a case of urging their followers to embark on a self improvement course throughout their life. Most of us believe that we are all immortal and that our journey involves many incarnations of some nature.

We suggest that those of you that wish to investigate these options and perhaps embark on your own spiritual journey review these many schools of thought. As always, we do not recommend that any one of these authors, teachings or organizations are better than any other or even appropriate for your personal journey to enlightenment. That judgement is strictly up to the individual.

A Course in Miracles Foundation for Inner Peace

acim.org

A Course In Miracles (ACIM) is a unique spiritual self-study program designed to awaken us to the truth of our oneness with God and Love. Would you like to feel peaceful even in difficult circumstances? Would you like all of your relationships to be loving? Would you like to feel more connected to your Source? Website Description

A Course in Miracles is a 1976 book by Helen Schucman. It is a curriculum for those seeking to achieve spiritual transformation. The underlying premise is that the greatest "miracle" is the act of simply gaining a full "awareness of love's presence" in one's own life. Schucman claimed that the book had been dictated to her, word for word, via "inner dictation" from Jesus. The Course consists of three sections: the "Text", "Workbook for Students," and "Manual for Teachers". Written from 1965 to 1972, some distribution occurred via photocopies before a hardcover edition was published in 1976 by the Foundation for Inner Peace. The copyright and trademarks, which had been held by two foundations, were revoked in 2004 after lengthy litigation, because the earliest versions had been circulated without a copyright notice. “For me at this particular time in my life I recognize that everything is about moving closer to that which is God,” Oprah said once in an interview with TV’s Dr. Oz. “And without a full, spiritual center — and I’m not talking about religion — I’m talking about without understanding the fullness from which you’ve come, you can’t really fulfill your supreme moment of destiny. And I think everybody has a supreme moment of destiny.” A quote from the website.
