

Welcome To

theemeraldcrystal.com

Thank you for visiting our website and checking in to determine what this site is all about.

The answer is simple. It is all about you.

We are attempting to create a haven where you can be inspired, entertained, and educated.

This website will highlight our writings.

Hopefully, in the process, we spark your awareness about who you are and what your life is all about.

We have three primary goals.

The first relates to the fundamental question of deciding why humankind had been created in the first place. And then determining what we are supposed to be doing about it should be the most important thing on our minds. It's a complicated question and the plethora of many people and organizations vying for our obedience doesn't help. We suggest many things, but you decide. Each decision is up to you and you alone.

There will never be judgments of any kind offered within our pages.

The second goal of our website is to entertain you, and we offer storytelling, musical scenery videos, and educational offerings to satisfy those desires. Most of these offerings are available at no charge to our visitors, but we also offer our published books for sale in various formats. We have to pay our staff and eat just like you.

The third goal is to educate everyone to whatever degree we can. We will be the first to admit that we do not have all the answers, but we firmly believe that you can find many of them on this website by searching step by step. A path to awareness is going to be different for each soul. But the start of the journey may very well start inside this website.

theemeraldcrystal.com website is new and in the process of being designed and most likely always will be. In time, you will see articles and ideas from us and submitted by others from this big wide spiritual world.

You will find inspirational messages in special envelopes called Spiritual Nuggets, positioned at random locations throughout the site. Make of them what you will. Some will be pretty valuable to many.

Please help us to grow a perfect site by giving us your comments and suggestions in the many review and contact forms positioned throughout theemeraldcrystal.com. Also, consider joining the Emerald Crystal Warriors Club. You will then receive our updates as they occur.
